We offer classes at a variety of locations throughout Pinal County. Our program is for Adult Basic Education (ABE) learners (those below 8th grade level) as well as GED students. These classes help prepare those who are 16 years of age or older (and not currently enrolled in school) to take the Tests of General Educational Development (GED). Just inquiring about GED classes takes courage and is a great first step to getting back into the classroom.

UTILITY ASSISTANCE

Apache Junction USD – Project Help

480-288-2955 | www.ajusd.org (under the “Community” tab)

Project Help is 100% supported by financial donations, as well as food, new and gently-used clothing and household goods provided by churches, organizations, businesses and individuals. Aid is distributed, as funds allow, based on need as determined by the Project Help Coordinator. To be eligible for aid, students and families must first meet the following criteria:

The parent or legal guardian of the student must apply in-person, at the Project Help office.

The family must have children enrolled and regularly attending AJUSD school for a minimum of 2 weeks. All school aged children living in the household must attend an AJUSD. Aid will be contingent on continued, regular attendance at the school.

The family must live within the boundaries of AJUSD.

Written documentation of all income and all expenses must be provided.

Bills must be under the requesters name for all financial assistance.

CAHRA – Central Pinal County Human Resources (Central Pinal County) Apache Junction

520-466-1112 | 1-877-474-2472 | Fax: 520-466-0013

Case management for non-homeless families and individuals. All assistance is provided within the framework for a comprehensive case management plan.

Financial assistance is provided to help prevent loss of utility services or to establish service, eviction prevention and foreclosure prevention. Funds may also be used to assist with first month’s rent and rental deposits.

Emergency Shelter is provided to homeless persons and families. This service is available during normal business hours, after hours, weekends and holidays.

Transitional housing is provided for homeless families. The program is centered in Casa Grande but is open to the households from Pinal County who are willing to locate in Casa Grande.

Utility Discount Programs: provide applications for discount programs offered by Arizona Public Services, Salt River Project and Southwest Gas.

The Salvation Army

480-982-4110 | 605 E Broadway Ave, Apache Junction AZ 85119 | www.usw.salvationarmy.org

The Emergency Assistance Program provides stabilization for individuals and families facing temporary crisis. For people who lost their jobs, lose their means of transportation, or are waiting for government assistance, the choice between medicine, food or air conditioning can become a reality. The Salvation Army seeks to alleviate the financial struggles of those who have experienced a crisis within the last 30 days by paying one month rent or utilities. Assistance is given on a first-come, first-served basis.
